WHEE! SCHOOL'S OUT AND 64,000 CHILDREN GET SUMMER RESPITE

The District public schools closed today for the annual summer respite. Sixty-four thousand children were turned out for a carefree three-month vacation. The vast majority of them were in hilarious spirits. There were some, nevertheless, who kissed the teacher good-bye with tears in their House Consents to Senate cyes, apparently regretting the ninety-day separation. Unlucky teacher, however, heaved a sigh of relief as the school doors closed, but put on a white apron and again plunged into work. She must stay on the job until Friday, taking an inventory of the school supplies and performing other numerous tasks incident to the closing of the schools. But Friday is pay day and the work to her seems lighter. seems lighter.

WATERS INDICTED BY D. C. GRAND JURY

Charge of Murder Follows Report of Coroner's Jury in Slaying on Boat.

The District grand jury today reported an indictment for murder in the first degree against William Aldred Waters, otherwise known as Al Waters of Alexandria, in connection with the killing of Louis B. McCormack, June 14, during the riot on the steamer Macalester shortly before the boat landed at Alexandria. A bench warrant will be issued for any others who have been mentioned as being in the Giddings house during the time that Lyles is said to have had the Rosenbaum girl there. It is probable they will be held on charges of conducting a disorderly house.

A new development today was the confession, in a signed affidavit, of sixteen-year-old William Emmich, who was with the girl during a part of her wanderings in the woods along the Sligo branch, that he mistreated her in an abandoned shed. The affidavit was witnessed by a notary public and Detective F. C. Cilibert of the increased cost of living. By the Associated Press. NEW BEDFORD, Mass., June 21. —This old whaling city, accustomed for generations to hearing strange tales of the sea and the men who follow it, added another story to its annals today. It centered about the mysterious appearance of a battered schooner hulk and a tattered, half-starved man aboard her close to the shore of West Island yesterday.

The man, emaciated and with a heavy growth of beard, was found eating grass on the beach by a summer visitor. He could only tell the police today that he had drift-ed to the Island and that he had recently been in Boston and New York, His name, he said, was Os-mund Erickson, and his address "the Water" the Water."

Incidentally to make the issue seem more certain three bachelors were nominated for office here in Portland, with the women recording their preference for the first time in a primary contest. The women turned out in great numbers to vote despite the fact that one of the worst storms of fifty years prevailed in this vicinity. But that made no difference to them. They plodded to the polls and cast their ballots, and the campaign managers agree that they "voted right."
